

Adriana Fernández – Short Bio

Dr. Adriana Fernández is a Consultant Pediatrician at the Children's Hospital of La Plata, Buenos Aires and Professor in the Master of Clinical Nutrition program at the National University of La Plata.

She leads the Pediatric Area of FELANPE (Latin American Federation of Enteral and Parenteral Nutrition) and is an Honorary Member of the Argentine Society of Pediatrics. Dr. Fernández has authored numerous publications and book chapters and received multiple research awards; her work focuses on intestinal failure and rehabilitation, childhood malnutrition, cystic fibrosis, and pediatric gastroenterology.