Red Wine

PSI Ribera del Duero DO

0.75l Fr. 109.00

Dominion de Pingus

Country: Spain

Grape varieties: Tempranillo

The little brother of the pingus shows a cherry red color. On the nose, fruity, berry notes, cherry and floral nuances. Complex on the palate, intense, fruity, slightly jammy, with notes of Asian spice, blackberries, blueberries and vanilla. Well balanced, with nicely integrated tannins and a long finish.

San Marzano

0.75l Fr. 99.00

60 sessantanni old vines Primitivo di Manduria

Country: Italy

Grape variety: Primitivo

The crimson in the glass alone is tempting. And the nose is also beguiled with all sorts of dark fruity aromas that emerge from the glass: cherries, plums, compote and cassis. The aging in the barrel is also noticeable here, in addition to the fruit there are also roasted aromas such as vanilla and dark chocolate. On the palate, the wine is simply velvety and soft. The tannins glide over the tongue as if polished, the taste spreads comfortably in the mouth before lingering in the long finale.

Baron de Ley

0.75l Fr. 89.00

Finca Monasterio Rioja

On the palate it shows a great structure and is tasty, round and elegant.

selected red wines

Château Figeac

0.75l Fr. 390.00

Saint Emilion, Chateau Figeac

Country: France

Grape varieties: Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot

Tasted blind at the Southwold Bordeaux tasting. The Figeac put in a marvelous showing under strict blind conditions and it has clearly blossomed in bottle. It has an immediately engaging bouquet with vivid blackberry and raspberry fruit, wonderful mineralité and fine delineation. This is very composed, with a touch of graphite that almost takes you towards Pauillac rather than Saint Emilion. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, well-judged acidity, harmonious and lively with commendable precision towards the finish. This is a sophisticated and well-crafted Figeac that appears to be on an upward trajectory.

Ornellaia

0.75l Fr. 470.00

Bolgheri doc superiore, Tenuta dell'Ornellaia

Country: Italy

Grape varieties: Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Petit Verdot

The Ornellaia, with its dense, vibrant colour, has a nose of splendid aromatic complexity built around a limpid and brilliant fruitiness, underscored by refined spicy and balsamic notes. The mouth develops vibrant and complex fruity nuances framed by a dense, slender structure with tannins that attain a rare harmony between firmness and fleshiness, concluding with a long balanced and fresh finish.

Sassicaia

0.75l Fr. 395.00

Bolgheri Sassicaia doc, Tenuta San Guido

Country: Italy

Grape varieties: Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc

Aromas of red berry, blue flower, menthol, exotic spice and a whiff of French oak take shape on this impeccably balanced radiant red. The palate is vibrant and focused almost ethereal, delivering raspberry compote, Marasca cherry, star anise and cinnamon framed in elegant tannins. Weightless and loaded with finesse.
