Using the Accommodation

I want you to feel completely comfortable here and have a great time. To keep the accommodation in top condition for future guests, I kindly ask you to treat it with care. Please air out the rooms regularly, follow the house rules, and leave the space tidy. Before leaving the accommodation, make sure all windows and doors are securely closed for safety and protection. If anything happens, just let me know – we'll surely find a solution!

Quick Tour I

KEYPAD & ACCESS CODE

Your personal access code is valid from 4:00 PM on your arrival day until 11:00 AM on your departure day.

Please remember to lock the door after leaving the accommodation by pressing the "Back" button on the keypad.

SOFA BED

The sofa bed in the living area provides sleeping space for two people. Please cover the bed before using it for sleeping.

- Pillows & blankets: Stored in the ottoman of the sofa.
- Bed linen, sheets & extra towels: Located in the white cupboard in the basement.

If you need any help, feel free to reach out!

ENTERTAINMENT & SMART TV

In the TV cabinet, you'll find a selection of board games, perfect for cozy evenings.

The 65-inch 4K Smart TV offers various entertainment options. The soundbox enhances the cinema experience, providing premium sound quality. If your device is connected to the Wi-Fi, you can easily stream videos, movies, and series directly to the TV. Alternatively, you can use the remote control to watch live TV or log into your own streaming account. The Play Store is also available for installing additional apps.

Please remember to log out of all personal accounts before you leave to protect your data.

Quick Tour II

BEDROOMS

The beds will be freshly made upon your arrival. Fresh towels are also provided for each guest.

KITCHEN

The kitchen is fully equipped with a stove, oven, refrigerator, dishwasher, and coffee machine, as well as dishes, cutlery, cooking utensils, and cleaning supplies.

Additionally, you'll find a microwave, kettle, toaster, pots, pans, spices, and much more to make you feel right at home.

BATHROOMS

The bathroom is equipped with both a shower and a bathtub. You will also find a hairdryer, conditioner, shower gel, shampoo, and soap for your convenience. Additionally, there is a separate guest toilet.

Important after showering: Please air out the bathroom to allow moisture to escape and prevent mold from forming. Simply open the window for a few minutes.

House Rules

QUIET HOURS

During the week from 10 p.m. to 8 a.m.

On weekends from 10 p.m. to 10 a.m.

The rest times must be observed.

RESPECT FOR PROPERTY:

Please treat the apartment and its furnishings with respect. Excessive dirt or damage will be penalized and result in additional costs.

SMOKING AND PARTIES

Smoking inside the building is strictly prohibited. However, you are welcome to smoke outside. Parties and events are not allowed. Violations will result in a €250 fee plus any additional cleaning or repair costs.

NUMBER OF GUESTS

Exceeding the number of guests specified in the reservation is not permitted. A fee of €50 per night will be charged for each unauthorized guest.

PETS

Pets may be allowed upon prior request and for an additional fee. Violations of this policy may result in extra cleaning charges.

Glass & Waste

Waste

The bins are located at the beginning of the street. They remain there permanently, as the waste collection service only picks up from that location.

Please make sure to dispose of your waste in the correct bin:

- Blue = Paper and cardboard only
- Black-yellow = Yellow bag / lightweight packaging
- Black = General waste
- Brown = Organic waste

The current collection schedule is posted in the kitchen.

If you're unsure or have any questions, feel free to reach out.
Thanks so much for your help!

Glass

Glass bottles and containers do not belong in the regular waste bins but must be disposed of separately. Please take empty glass bottles to one of the public glass containers nearby.

The nearest locations are:

- Corner of Virchowstraße / Wisserstraße
- Am Krankenhaus 41-43
- Dr.-Carl-Sonnenschein-Straße 1 (Rewe parking lot)

If you're unable to dispose of the glass yourself, feel free to leave it in the accommodation – I'll take care of it.

Thanks so much for your help!

A PIECE OF HISTORY IN WORMS

Herrnsheimer Schloss in Worms-Herrnsheim is a stunning example of Empire and Neoclassical architecture. Once the residence of the Lords of Dalberg, a noble family serving as Chamberlains to the Bishop of Worms, the castle reflects centuries of history and elegance.

The adjoining castle park, designed by Friedrich Ludwig Sckell, is the most significant English landscape garden in Rhineland-Palatinate. With its scenic pathways, tranquil ponds, and lush greenery, it's a perfect place to relax and unwind.

Tip: Enjoy a picnic in the park or take a bike tour through the nearby vineyards, known for their excellent wines. Regular cultural events in the castle courtyard add to the charm of this historic setting.

A SCENIC RIVERSIDE ESCAPE

The Rhine Promenade in Worms is a historic park dating back to the 1920s and remains one of the city's most beautiful and significant green spaces. Lined with majestic trees and offering stunning river views, it's the perfect place for a leisurely stroll, a morning jog, or simply unwinding in nature.

For those who want to end the day by the water, the nearby sandbank is a hidden gem. Here, you can dip your feet into the Rhine, watch the gentle waves, and enjoy the peaceful atmosphere - a favorite spot among locals seeking a quiet retreat away from the city's bustle.

Tip: If you want to catch the sunset in all its glory, head to the opposite riverbank. The NATO Ramp in Lampertheim is an excellent spot for a relaxed day by the water, offering breathtaking views of the sun setting over the Rhine. Just one thing - don't forget your mosquito spray!

A WILDLIFE ADVENTURE FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

Spanning 8.5 hectares, Tiergarten Worms is home to over 600 animals from more than 80 species. Here, visitors can encounter both native wildlife and exotic species from South America, Africa, and Australia. The zoo's walk-in enclosures, a picturesque pond, a majestic stork's nest, and an inclusive playground make it a favorite destination for families and nature lovers alike.

To make the visit even more exciting, the zoo offers interactive animal feedings, educational stations, and guided tours. A true highlight is the walk-in kangaroo enclosure, where visitors can get up close to these fascinating marsupials, as well as the spacious bird of prey aviary, home to majestic raptors.

Tip: Arriving in the early morning is especially rewarding, as many animals are at their most active. For those looking to extend their outing, a scenic walk through the Bürgerweide recreation area - just next door - offers the perfect way to round off a day of adventure.

A GREEN ESCAPE IN THE HEART OF WORMS

The Bürgerweide is the largest recreational area in Worms, located just south of the city center. Spanning around 70 hectares, it features vast meadows, shaded tree-lined avenues, and serene water areas. Originally used as a communal grazing land, it has evolved into a beloved city park over time.

With its walking trails, playgrounds, and sports facilities, Bürgerweide is the perfect place to relax or get active. A highlight is the "Wäldchen", the oldest part of the park, offering a quiet retreat from city life. Just a short walk away, the Tiergarten Worms is another local gem, home to numerous animal species and walk-in enclosures.

Tip: To end the day on a relaxing note, take a short trip to the nearby Rhine sandbank, where you can unwind by the water.

AN ICONIC LANDMARK OF ARCHITECTURE

The Worms Cathedral is the city's most iconic landmark and one of the most significant Romanesque churches in Germany. Built in the 12th century, its imposing towers, intricate frescoes, and impressive crypt showcase centuries of craftsmanship and faith. Inside, the ornate Baroque choir stalls and richly decorated altar add to its grandeur.

Beyond its architectural beauty, the cathedral is steeped in history. In 1521, the Diet of Worms took place here, where Martin Luther stood before Emperor Charles V, shaping the course of the Reformation.

Tip: For a breathtaking view of the nave, visit the south gallery. After exploring, take a break at one of the cozy cafés and restaurants nearby and soak in the historic atmosphere.

FRESH FLAVORS & REGIONAL CHARM

The Worms Weekly Market is a true highlight for locals and visitors alike, offering a rich selection of fresh, regional products three times a week. From crisp vegetables and sun-ripened fruits to artisanal cheeses, homemade baked goods, and fragrant herbs, the market is a feast for the senses. Seasonal specialties and handcrafted delicacies add a unique touch, making each visit a discovery of new flavors.

A special treat awaits visitors from March to October, when the Worms Market Winemakers set up their stalls every Saturday. They offer a fine selection of regional wines, inviting guests to linger, sip, and enjoy the vibrant atmosphere.

Tip: Need a refreshing break? Just a short stroll from the market, Eiscafé Vannini is a must-visit in the summer months. With its impressive variety of ice cream flavors, it's the perfect spot to cool down and indulge in a sweet treat.
