Our autumn 2027 trip is based in Cumbernauld ideal for exploring the 'Central Belt', we will be stopping off twice en route as we head to our hotel. We visit Edinburgh with an award winning humorous tour and then free time. Our visit to Loch Lomond should be very colourful as we sail the loch and then have a tasting tour in Luss. Dumfries House with its Chippendale and art collection set in great surroundings will be inspiring along with Rabbin Burns Cottage. Our trip to the Royal Yacht Britannia, the Falkirk wheel and the Kelpies will amaze while our visit to Annie Mcleods experience in New Lanark will enlighten and frighten you!!!

Our Hotel is the 4* Westerwood Spa & Golf Resort at Cumbernauld just outside Glasgow. Set in its own extensive grounds, it provides an ideal location from which to explore the local area. The hotel has a nice airy restaurant serving local food, with generous rooms complimented by a large swimming pool and health club. All the single rooms are doubles for single occupancy.

Proposed Itinerary

Sunday 3rd October We depart WTS at 09.30 and stop off at Ripon and then Berwick upon Tweed, with time to explore arriving at Cumbernauld late afternoon. Dinner

Monday. Breakfast. We enjoy a walking tour of Edinburgh with award winning humorous guides to explain the unique history and characters of the city. We then have free time to explore this lovely city. Dinner

Tuesday. Breakfast. We visit Falkirk, take a boat ride on the iconic wheel before we go to see the mystical Kelpies. In the afternoon we visit the Royal Yacht Britannia with time to have tea overlooking Leith harbour. Dinner

Wednesday. Breakfast. We travel to Balloch for free time before we go to pretty Luss for a tasting, either Gin or Whiskey and then sail through the Islands to Balmah to take in the sights and colours of Loch Lomond. Dinner

Thursday Breakfast. We visit Dumfries House for a tour to hear about and see the collections of fine furniture (Chippendale) and art while seeing how the renovation work is carried out, protecting the skills for the future. We then go to Rabbin Burns Cottage & Birth Place Museum to see where he was born and gain inspiration for his works. Dinner

Friday 8th October Breakfast. We make our way home stopping off at New Lanark, World heritage Site to hear about mill worker Annie Mcleod and see the waterfalls on the River Clyde. After two final stops one at Teebay Services to stock up. We arrive back about 19.00

For this trip you will need to be reasonably agile due to the activities listed above. .
For operational reasons this itinerary may change.

We hope you can join us for this trip. G & L
