19th July 2026

Dear

Please see enclosed the details for our summer 2026 trip to Pembrokeshire. The date for your diary is Sunday 19th July 2026 for six days. The hotel we are staying , is the ideally located Ty Hotel Milford Waterfront, Milford Haven. This have a 4.5 star rating with Tripadvisor for both accommodation and food and is in an excellent locations for us to explore South Wales. The hotel rooms are well maintained, light and airy with all modern facilities including tea and coffee making facilities, WIFI and air conditioning. It is possible to have rooms overlooking the harbour for those who wish to enjoy even more space and facilities. (Price on application). The hotel has a limited number of accessible rooms for those who would benefit from their facilities. We will be able to relax in the hotel's bar and lounges while enjoying the hotel's dining room which has lovely views of the harbour and excellent food. The hotel is located on the waterfront with nice places to walk and several bars to explore in the evenings.

We have full itinerary for you visiting some of the highlights of Pembrokeshire, Milford haven boasts a rich maritime history, particularly as a former fishing town and Royal Naval Dockyard. The Milford Waterfront development has transformed the area into a leisure destination with shops, restaurants, and a marina. Picton castle, with over 700 years of history a medieval fortress with graceful Georgian interiors are unique. Gwili Railway is one of the UK's most picturesque preserved lines. Set in beautiful countryside the line follows the River Gwili on a steady uphill journey through farmland and wooded hillsides. The National Botanic Garden of Wales is a 568-acre garden with themed gardens, a glasshouse, and a nature reserve, dedicated to conservation and the arts. St Davids where we have a humorous tour of this pretty city with its quaint streets, cute cafes, boutiques and galleries followed by a visit to the Bug farm which showcases the sustainable future of food, farming and wildlife conservation and Yes you can try a few if you dare!! Tenby, a historic town located in Wales, known for its castle walls, Victorian architecture, and beautiful coastline and pretty port from where we go to Caldey Island. The Cistercian monks of Caldey continue a tradition which began there in Celtic times. More than a thousand years of prayer and quiet living have made this remote and beautiful island a haven of tranquility and peace with plenty to see including red squirrels, seals and puffins. Our final visit on our way home is to The Royal Mint Experience, where we see the United Kingdom's coins being made. We go behind the scenes to follow the journey of a coin from a blank to a bank on the Guided Factory Experience.

We do hope you can join us on this trip
