Our Spring 2026 trip is based in Felpham outside Bognor Regis 'the sunniest place to be'. We will stop en route at pretty Water Penny Gardens and then on to Winchester to explore. We go to the Weald and Downland Museum home to the repair shop. Goodwood House, Bosham and Chichester. Visit Brighton Pavillion, take a tour of Brighton and the 'Lanes' and ride the VER. Visit pretty Arundle and its Castle and Parham House and Gardens. On the way home we stop off in Windsor for some free time before heading to Woburn Abbey (Provsional)

To enable us to see the most of the area, we are staying at the Best Western Beachcroft Signature Collection Hotel, located in Felpham overlooking the beach with Sea Views and only 800 yards to the pier and close to Bognor Regis. An independently run hotel having 4.5 on Tripadvisor with recently refurbished rooms and freshly prepared dishes using local seasonal produce. We will be in the main dining room in which to enjoy breakfast and locally prepared dinner and be able to use the hotels leisure facilities incl pool. Singles are double for sole use. The hotel does not have a lift. We can request low floor rooms. Rooms will be serviced twice during our stay.
