CHAMPAGNE, SHENANIGANS & SOME FINE PRINT

Yes, we came to slay — but even icons need a few ground rules. Skim this so the only thing we're spilling is tea, not drama.

1. Treat it Like Home ,But With Better Décor.

We love making your stay unforgettable and we ask that you treat the space with care. If anything gets damaged during your weekend, the booking guest will be responsible. Just give us a heads-up if something happens — no stress, we're here to help!

2. Keep the Vibes High & the Volume Low

You're here to have fun, and we love that for you! Just be mindful of sound, especially outside and during quiet hours. Most of our homes are tucked into peaceful neighborhoods, so a little consideration goes a long way.

3. Explore Freely, But You're On Your Own Out There

If you're hitting up local bars, spas, or other spots (yay!), just remember: those adventures aren't part of your booking with us. We're not responsible for what happens off-site, but we know you'll represent your crew like pros!

4. Alcohol Add-Ons = Adults Only

If your package includes bubbly or booze, everyone in the group must be 21+ and sign a quick waiver. Easy peasy, just keeping it safe and legal.

5. Book Early, Celebrate Big

To make sure everything's just right, we ask that bachelorette weekends are booked at least one month in advance and a 50% deposit must be made with booking. Trust us — the earlier you book, the better the magic.

6. Summer Bookings = Longer Stays

During our busy summer season, some properties may require week-long bookings for parties like yours. There are a few exceptions, so reach out and we'll find the perfect spot for your group.

7. Don't Worry About the Mess

We've got cleanup covered! Just follow the simple checkout instructions we provide. We love reusing signs, décor, and supplies — so please don't throw anything away unless we say it's okay or its meen damaged or soiled rules aren't exactly the life of the party.*

But we've added a few gentle guidelines to help keep the good vibes flowing — not just for you, but for the next group of gals coming in with champagne and matching t-shirts. We truly believe your bachelorette weekend should be more than just a getaway — it should be something you'll talk about for years. That's why we do what we do: creating cozy, joy-filled, one-of-a-kind stays in the heart of the Northwoods.

These little reminders help us protect that magic — our properties, our team, and the communities that make this place feel like a dream.

Thanks for being part of it. We can't wait to help you celebrate your “last fling before the ring” — and make it everything you hoped it would be (and a little more sparkly, too).

Thanks for sticking with us through the fine print. We promise we're way more fun in person.

We're here to make sure your weekend is full of big laughs, ridiculous memories, group photos you'll want to frame (and a few you won't), and zero planning stress.

Now... let's plan the best weekend ever.
You bring the bride, we'll bring the magic.

And maybe a mimosa.

Probably a mimosa.

Definitely a mimosa.

*xoxo,
