

Destination of the Month Botanic Sanctuary, Antwerp

With a number of world-class museums and galleries, exceptional restaurants – and now a spectacular new hotel – Antwerp should be on every discerning traveller's wish list.

Travelling by Eurostar is a hassle-free experience: it is less than two hours from St. Pancras to Brussels-Midi and then a journey of 45 minutes onward to Antwerp.

The stylish Botanic Sanctuary which opened in 2022 and fabulous. Housed within a 15th-century monastery, next to the botanical gardens, it offers 108 elegant rooms and suites as well as an extensive spa and an 18m indoor swimming pool. The restaurants here are equally impressive, including the one-Michelin-starred 'Fine Fleur' and 'Hertog Jan' with two Michelin stars.

The location is in the city centre, almost next door to the Museum Mayer van den Bergh where you will find Mad Meg by Peter Bruegel and a 15-minute walk from The Cathedral of Our Lady, where you can see three important works by Rubens - the Flemish master. Also within walking distance are the Plantin-Moretus Museum and the Royal Museum of Fine Arts.
