From hard work to optimal relaxation

A successful workday calls for a good start and a relaxing conclusion. After an intensive meeting, a long drive, or a project on-site, you just want to unwind in a place where everything feels right.

Our modern rooms offer all the peace and quiet you need to open your laptop undisturbed, but they are primarily the ideal spot to truly switch off afterward.

Looking for some relaxation outside of office hours? The surroundings of Heemskerk offer plenty of ways to wrap up your day—from getting a breath of fresh air at the beach or going for a run in the dunes, to enjoying a great dinner just around the corner.

That is how a business stay almost feels like a mini-getaway.
